

Pakistan-Afghanistan

Pakistan last night announced that Agha Shahi, who handles most foreign policy matters for President Zia ul-Haq, will go to Kabul this weekend for talks deterred since the overthrow of Afghan President Taraki in mid-September. the two [illeg] are likely to focus on alleged Pakistani support for Afghan insurgents and on the huge flux of Afghan refugees into Pakistan, but no substantial [words illeg] either issue is [words illeg]

18 Dec 1979

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~OK to releaseAFGHANISTAN

Pakistan last night announced that Ayub Khan, who invokes most foreign policy, he says for President Zia ul-Haq, will go to Kabul this weekend for talks directed toward overthrow of Afghan President Taraki in mid-September. The two sides are likely to focus on alleged Russian support for Afghan insurgents and on the role of Afghan veterans in Pakistan, but no substantial progress is expected on either issue.

release

12 JAN 1980

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~